We have seen a sharp increase in tax-related scams targeting individuals and businesses. Here's what you need to know.

Top Scams to Avoid:

Fake IRS Calls/Emails – Scammers demand payment or threaten arrest. The IRS never contacts you this way.

Phishing Emails & Fake Portals – Designed to steal login info or personal data. Always verify before clicking links.

Identity Theft Tax Filings – Criminals file under your name to steal your refund.

Bogus Tax Preparers – Some pose as professionals but misuse your info or file fraudulent returns.

How to Protect Yourself:

- File early to avoid identity theft.
- Never share personal info via email or phone.
- Use verified, credentialed tax professionals.
